Date and Time	Details of Masterclass
15 June 1:00-2:30pm IST	The Future of Space - Turning Science Fiction into Reality in the Classroom Space lasers, re-usable rockets, and space mining. They all may sound like science-fiction but they are closer to reality than you may think. We'll cover the latest in space technology and advancements, and look at things like humans returning to the Moon and moving to Mars. We can even see how living on Mars may help us solve living here on Earth! Throughout this talk, we'll show a few experiments, activities, and resources, you can use with your students!  Speaker - Dr Brad Tucker, Mount Stromlo Observatory, Australian National University
16 June 11:30-1pm IST	Leading Digital Learning Delivering online learning in schools is an increasingly necessary skill for teachers. Successful leadership in the pivot to online learning requires the support and facilitation of teachers to develop their identities as learners, designers and researchers. Participants will develop skills to collaborate, lead, and establish professional networks.  In this series of Masterclasses, we cover a range of topics including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Designing for digital learning and change</li> <li>• Leading teams for collaborative professional learning</li> <li>• Technologies for online learning</li> <li>• Using learning analytics to inform practice in online learning</li> <li>• Teaching and assessment in online learning environments</li> </ul> Speakers - Professor Kate Thompson, Dr Chris Blundell, Dr Michelle Mukherjee, Dr Shaun Nykvist from the Faculty of Education, Queensland University of Technology
18 June 11:30-1pm IST	Transformative career and life lessons from the pandemic - through the lens of economics We will explore how the threshold concepts of economics gives us lenses as individuals to enhance our professional development. The pandemic and its impact has highlighted that economics provides several keys to unlock our potential. Gaining these lenses and utilising these keys in our own lives can have a transformative impact on our career and life decisions.  Speaker - Dr Prashan S M Karunaratne, Lecturer, Macquarie Business School
19 June 2:30-4pm IST	Do goldfish really have a longer attention span than students of today? The secret to modern learning? Simple: continuous, content-rich, and immediate – but how to achieve this? Join zoologist and teaching-focused academic Dr Gurion Ang (a.k.a. Dr G) as we discuss how we define, distinguish and discuss the modern learner. Dr G works closely with senior educators around the world to align high school science with undergraduate teaching. Bring along your questions too!  Speaker - Dr Gurion Ang (a.k.a. Dr G), School of Biological Sciences, Faculty of Science, The University of Queensland
22 June 11:30-1pm IST	Digital and Social Media Strategies for Schools Social media has a role to play in every organisation, in every industry including schools. It enables engagement with a range of stakeholders not possible on any other marketing channel. It also enables access to market information not possible on any other marketing channel. It is about far more than just the technology, though, and that is what this session will cover. We will cut through the hype around social media at a tactical level, and shed light on the strategic issues in social media marketing. Social media is not about Facebook, Twitter or LinkedIn. It is about a paradigm shift in marketing and business generally that requires significant strategic change.  Speaker - Dr Paul Harrigan, Associate Professor of Marketing and Acting Head of Marketing Department, Business School, UWA
23 June 12-1:30pm IST	Iterating Workplace Practices Post the Covid-19 Crisis Join this masterclass delivered by talent management expert Dr Sharna Wiblen while she provides expert advice on how schools can transition through the pandemic with clarity.  Speaker - Dr Sharna Wiblen, Senior Lecturer, Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong
