After COVID-19:

Back on Track—To Dandoba

The Dandoba Hill forest preserve is rich in flora and fauna and also has a few historically significant ancient temples in its hills. The hills of this preserve are a popular location for trekking and long hikes. There is also an annual mini-marathon race held at Dandoba Hill Station, which is quite a popular event.

There are 2 ways to reach Dandoba mountain, if you like trekking then you can use the trek way from Siddhewadi, and it will be an unforgettable experience for you. Another way to reach Dandoba hill is Miraj-Pandharpur highway. Car and bikes both can reach there easily. But the real fun is trekking. You will also get to experience beautiful scenery.

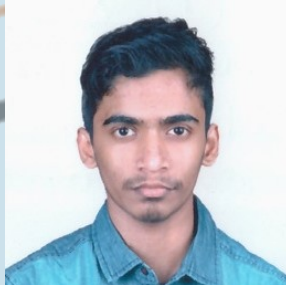

Nav Krishna Valley School, Kupwad, organized trekking trip to Dandoba near Bhoze, on Saturday 28th August, 2021. All teachers along with Principal Sangeeta Pagnis Maam, Vice Principal Mr. Chavan Sir gathered at the foothill of Dandoba at 7.30 am. After having breakfast started trekking with excitement. During lunch at Dandoba Hon. Mr. Kamat Sir joined with us.

GENERAL KNOWLEDGE

What are flying squirrels ?

Flying squirrels are known for soaring anywhere from 150 to 500 feet, sailing from tree to tree to avoid ground predators—but they actually glide rather than fly. Flying squirrels don't have their own means of propulsion, like a bird or bat, but glide using a furry membrane called the patagium that connects at their wrists down to their ankles. When they leap from a tree and spread their limbs, this flap of loose skin forms a square and acts like a hang glider. These animals are capable of making 180-degree turns in mid-air to evade flying predators like owls. There are about 50 species of flying squirrels ranging across most of North America down into Central America, and stretching from Southeast and Northern Asia into Siberia and Scandinavia. Some flying squirrels have only one mating cycle per year but others, such as the Japanese dwarf flying squirrel, have two. The time of year for mating and birth depend on the species as well.

AN INTERVIEW WITH A TEACHER.

Excerpts of interview with Mr. Kiran Lote,
The teacher of the month.
Interviewer : Mr. Prashant Chavan.

Introduce yourself ?

Ans. My name is Kiran Lote & live in Sangli. I am MA, B.Ed & am working at Nav Krishna Valley School, Kupwad since nine years. I have worked at different levels from primary to higher secondary. I am interested in teaching and learning English language and help the learners to be equipped with the linguistic skills and to enable them to meet the challenges in future.

Why you decided to be a teacher?

Ans. Teachers when I was studying inspired me to take up this profession as this is such a noble profession, and quite a satisfying one. It allows you to grow continuously while imparting knowledge and igniting young minds who are our future.

What do you like about Krishna Valley school?

Ans. Oh! It's wonderful. I consider myself to be fortunate as being a part of a dynamic team. It always motivates you when you are surrounded by a cooperative and a highly motivated staff and proactive & supportive management. Our school provides us with opportunities where you can grow continuously in joyous environment while developing your own skills. Here, I feel belonged.

What are the challenges you've faced in school?

Ans. As a new teacher, here are certain limitations for gaining acceptance and developing attachment with students. But that makes it interesting. I believe that there's always a room for improvement.

How do you handle a problem student?

Ans. In my opinion, there is no one as problem student but student with problems. Discussion & effective communication with students & parents may generally solve the problem.

Who is your role model.

Ans. The Great personalities like Dr. APJ Kalam and Swami Vivekanand are my role models. I draw inspiration from their work and lives.

Unique Birthday Celebration at Old age homes. Everyone's birthday is a memorable day in their life, and each one celebrates it in a different way. On the Occasion of my birthday on 28th August, I donated food at the old age home and distributed fruits at the nearby hospital, which gave me an immense pleasure in celebrating my birthday in a different way. Their blessings and the joy of spending time with the people in old age homes was really a memorable experience for me. Every year I plan out my birthday in a different way in doing some community work, that preserves the culture, traditions and ethical values from one generation to another. Spending quality time with the people who are in need of help, love and affection gives me immense happiness to make my day a Special one.
